Dear friends,

Welcome to Washington National Cathedral! We are glad you are here with us to share in our Christian celebrations. Thank you for taking time out of your busy schedules to pause and enjoy the wonder of this special season.

Frederick Buechner in his book, The Longing for Home: Reflections at Midlife, writes: “Our stories are all stories of searching. We search for a good self to be and for good work to do. We search to become human in a world that tempts us always to be less than human or looks to us to be more. We search to love and to be loved. And in a world where it is often hard to believe in much of anything, we search to believe in something holy and beautiful and life-transcending that will give meaning and purpose to the lives we live.”

In the birth of the Christ child, I believe we have found a source of holy, beautiful, transcendent and life-giving meaning that can give our lives great purpose. I believe that in the manger we have found the answer to all our longings and the end of all our searchings. In this miraculous event we discover that the holy and infinite God has chosen to become one of us, not in great power or prestige, but as a vulnerable child born to a poor unwed couple in the stable of a small town. God comes not to punish us but to love us, as one of us. God comes to show us the path to lives of deep meaning and purpose because in the incarnation we are not just taught about the nature of God’s love — we literally see it embodied and lived out in the life of Jesus. At Christmas, God comes to show us the way home, to a home we have never seen but a home we have longed for all our lives.

In this day and age when our culture seems to be pulling itself apart, when it is increasingly easy to demonize others rather than honor them, our God shows us a different way. On Christmas, the Holy One stoops to become one of us and in so doing shows us that deep and abiding love always involves humility, vulnerability and trust. In Christ, we are given a guide, a yardstick, to measure ourselves against and to hold up as an example of what we can be at our best. Now more than ever we need the good news of Immanuel, “God with us.”

We are blessed by your presence today and we hope this service of praise and worship will be a blessing to you. No matter why you have come, please know that you are welcome here, today and always.

Merry Christmas and may God bless and keep you.

INTROIT

Tomorrow shall be my dancing day
Tomorrow shall be my dancing day:
I would my true love did so chance
To see the legend of my play,
To call my true love to my dance:

Sing O my love, O my love, my love, my love;
This have I done for my true love.
Then was I born of a virgin pure,
Of her I took fleshly substance;
Thus was I knit to man’s nature,
To call my true love to my dance:

In a manger laid and wrap’d I was,
So very poor, this was my chance,
Betwixt an ox and a silly poor ass,
To call my true love to my dance.
(Traditional English carol)

HYMN AT THE PROCESSION

Once in royal David’s city

Irby

1. Once in royal David’s city stood a lowly cattle shed,
2. He came down to earth from heaven, who is God and Lord of all,
3. We, like Mary, rest confounded that a stable should display
4. For he is our lifelong pattern; daily, when on earth he grew,
5. And our eyes at last shall see him, through his own redeeming love;
6. Not in that poor lowly stable, with the oxen standing round,

1. where a mother laid her baby in a manger for his bed:
2. and his shelter was a stable, and his cradle was a stall;
3. heaven’s Word, the world’s creator, cradled there on Christmas Day,
4. he was tempted, scorned, rejected, tears and smiles like us he knew,
5. for that child who seemed so helpless is our Lord in heaven above;
6. we shall see him; but in heaven, where his saints his throne surround:

1. Mary was that mother mild, Jesus Christ her little child.
2. with the poor, the scorned, the lowly, lived on earth our Savior holy.
3. yet this child, our Lord and brother, brought us love for one another.
4. Thus he feels for all our sadness, and he shares in all our gladness.
5. and he leads his children on to the place where he is gone.
6. Christ, revealed to faithful eye, set at God’s right hand on high.

THE COLLECT OF THE NATIVITY OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST

Presider The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Presider Let us pray.

O God, you make us glad by the yearly festival of the birth of your only Son Jesus Christ: Grant that we, who joyfully receive him as our Redeemer, may with sure confidence behold him when he comes to be our Judge; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

People Amen.

THE WORD OF GOD

THE FIRST READING

Isaiah 52:7–10

How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of the messenger who announces peace, who brings good news, who announces salvation, who says to Zion, “Your God reigns.” Listen! Your sentinels lift up their voices, together they sing for joy; for in plain sight they see the return of the Lord to Zion. Break forth together into singing, you ruins of Jerusalem; for the Lord has comforted his people, he has redeemed Jerusalem. The Lord has bared his holy arm before the eyes of all the nations; and all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our God.

Reader The Word of the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

PSALM 98

Chant: Douglas Major (b. 1953)

The choir introduces the antiphon, then all repeat.

Sing to the Lord a new song, for he has done marvelous things.
With his right hand and his holy arm has he won for himself the victory.
The Lord has made known his victory; his righteousness has he openlyshown in the sight of the nations.
He remembers his mercy and faithfulness to the house of Israel, and all the ends of the earth have seen the victory of our God.
Shout with joy to the Lord, all you lands; lift up your voice, rejoice, and sing.

Sing to the Lord with the harp, with the harp and the voice of song.
With trumpets and the sound of the horn shout with joy before the King, the Lord.
Let the sea make a noise and all that is in it, the lands and those who dwell therein.
Let the rivers clap their hands, and let the hills ring out with joy before the Lord, when he comes to judge the earth.
In righteousness shall he judge the world and the peoples with equity.

All sing the antiphon.
Long ago God spoke to our ancestors in many and various ways by the prophets, but in these last days he has spoken to us by a Son, whom he appointed heir of all things, through whom he also created the worlds. He is the reflection of God’s glory and the exact imprint of God’s very being, and he sustains all things by his powerful word. When he had made purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high, having become as much superior to angels as the name he has inherited is more excellent than theirs. For to which of the angels did God ever say, “You are my Son; today I have begotten you”? Or again, “I will be his Father, and he will be my Son”? And again, when he brings the firstborn into the world, he says, “Let all God’s angels worship him.” Of the angels he says, “He makes his angels winds, and his servants flames of fire.” But of the Son he says, “Your throne, O God, is forever and ever, and the righteous scepter is the scepter of your kingdom. You have loved righteousness and hated wickedness; therefore God, your God, has anointed you with the oil of gladness beyond your companions.” And, “In the beginning, Lord, you founded the earth, and the heavens are the work of your hands; they will perish, but you remain; they will all wear out like clothing; like a cloak you will roll them up, and like clothing they will be changed. But you are the same, and your years will never end.”

HYMN AT THE SEQUENCE

Angels, from the realms of glory

1. Angels, from the realms of glory, wing your flight o’er all the earth; ye, who sang creation’s story, now proclaim Messiah’s birth:

2. Shepherds in the field abide, watching o’er your flocks by night, God with you is now residing; yonder shines the infant Light:

3. Sages, leave your contemplations; brighter visions beam afar: seek the great Desire of nations; ye have seen his natal star:

4. Saints before the altar bending, watching long in hope and fear, suddenly the Lord, descending, in his temple shall appear:

Refrain come and worship, come and worship, worship Christ, the newborn King.
Deacon  The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.
People  Glory to you, Lord Christ.

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things came into being through him, and without him not one thing came into being. What has come into being in him was life, and the life was the light of all people. The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not overcome it. There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness to testify to the light, so that all might believe through him. He himself was not the light, but he came to testify to the light. The true light, which enlightens everyone, was coming into the world. He was in the world, and the world came into being through him; yet the world did not know him. He came to what was his own, and his own people did not accept him. But to all who received him, who believed in his name, he gave power to become children of God, who were born, not of blood or of the will of the flesh or of the will of man, but of God. And the Word became flesh and lived among us, and we have seen his glory, the glory as of a father’s only son, full of grace and truth.

Deacon  The Gospel of the Lord.
People  Praise to you, Lord Christ.

THE NICE CREED
We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation, he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

If that they be not there?
There are angels singing
Nova cantica.
There the bells are ringing
In Regis curia:
O that we were there!

HYMN AT THE PRESENTATION

On this day earth shall ring

1. On this day earth shall ring with the song children sing to the Lord, Christ our King, born on earth to save us; him the Father gave us.
   Beth-le-hem saw his birth; ox and ass beside him from the cold would hide him.
   Kneel they low by his bed, lay their gifts before him, praise him and adore him.
   Praising Christ, heaven’s King, born on earth to save us; peace and love he gave us.

The Great Thanksgiving

Presider  The Lord be with you.
People    And also with you.
Presider  Lift up your hearts.
People    We lift them to the Lord.
Presider  Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People    It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Presider  It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. Because you gave Jesus Christ, your only Son, to be born for us; who, by the mighty power of the Holy Spirit, was made perfect Man of the flesh of the Virgin Mary his mother; so that we might be delivered from the bondage of sin, and receive power to become your children.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus & Benedictus

Richard Proulx (1937-2010)

Presider  We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world.

In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life. On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Presider  Therefore, according to his command, O Father,
People    We remember his death, we proclaim his resurrection, we await his coming in glory;
Presider

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine. We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with blessed Mary and Joseph, Peter and Paul, our patrons, and all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

All

AMEN.

THE LORD’S PRAYER

Presider

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All

Notre Père..., Padre nostro..., Vater unser..., Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD & THE FRACTION ANTHEM

Franz Schubert (1797-1828); arr. R. Proulx

Jesus, Lamb of God: have mercy on us. Jesus, bearer of our sins: have mercy on us. Jesus, redeemer, redeemer of the world: give us your peace, give us your peace.

The people are seated.

THE INVITATION TO HOLY COMMUNION

All who seek God and a deeper life in Christ are welcome to receive Holy Communion. Please receive the bread in open and outstretched hands and sip the wine from the chalice, guiding it gently to your lips; or you may dip the wafer into the wine. Gluten-free wafers are available; please make your need known to the minister. Respond to receiving Communion by saying “Amen.” If you prefer to receive a blessing instead, please indicate your choice by crossing your hands across your chest.

ANTHEM AT THE COMMUNION

Here is the little door

Herbert Howells (1892-1983)

Here is the little door, lift up the latch, oh lift! We need not wander more but enter with our gift; our gift of finest gold, gold that was never bought nor sold; myrrh to be strewn about His Bed; incense in clouds about His Head; all for the Child that stirs not in His sleep, but holy slumber holds with ass and sheep. Bend low about His Bed, for each he has a gift; see how His eyes awake, lift up your hands, O lift! For gold, He gives a keen-edged sword (Defend with it Thy little Lord!) For incense, smoke of battle red myrrh for the honoured happy dead; gifts for His children, terrible and sweet, touched by such tiny hands and oh such tiny feet.

(Frances Chesterton, 1869-1938)

The people stand.
1. Joy to the world! the Lord is come: let earth receive her King;
       let every heart prepare him room, and heaven and nature sing.

2. Joy to the world! the Savior reigns; let us all sing, while fields and floods, rocks, hills and plains, repeat the sounding joy, far as the curse is found, and heaven, and nature sing.

3. No more let sins and sorrows grow, nor thorns infest the ground; he comes to make his blessings flow far and wide, to fill the empty places with his wonders of love.

4. He rules the world with truth and grace, and makes the nations prove the glories of his rightousness, and heaven and nature sing, far as the curse is found, and heaven and nature sing.
THE POSTCOMMUNION PRAYER

Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE BLESSING OF CHRISTMAS

People Amen.

Mendelssohn

2. Christ, by highest heaven adored; Christ, the everlasting Lord;

3. Hail the heav'n-born Prince of Peace! Hail the Sun of Righteousness!

Peace on earth and mercy mild,

Light and life to all he brings,
risen with healing in his wings;

Joyful, all ye nations, rise,
join the triumph of the skies;
Veiled in flesh the God-head see;
hail the incarnate Deity.

Mild he lays his glory by,
born that we no more may die,
with the angelic host proclaim Christ is born in Bethlehem!
Pleased as man with us to dwell: Jesus, our Emmanuel!

born to raise us from the earth, born to give us second birth.
