(“Love one another section for Juniors)

Junior Choristers should be comfortable singing in unison or two parts and have basic music reading skills. Selections for the festival have been chosen so that Junior Choristers will have a wide range of unison anthems to sing on Sundays. They will also sing with the Senior choristers on some of the more difficult selections to encourage growth and confidence.

Senior Choristers should be comfortable singing in 3 or 4 part textures and have intermediate music reading skills. Selections for the festival have been chosen to keep older musicians engaged with more challenging musical concepts.
