An Online House of Prayer for All People

Even though our building is closed temporarily, we’re committed to bringing all the warmth, beauty and God’s presence in the Cathedral directly to you! We invite you to interact with us in new ways, and we hope you find a measure of comfort and God’s grace in these challenging times.

COVID-19 closures have disrupted life for everyone, and we know this is a difficult time for many. You can help the Cathedral provide comfort and hope for our nation. Give today at cathedral.org/support.

HBCU Sunday

This week we celebrate the contributions of the nation’s Historically Black Colleges and Universities. We’ll be joined by a virtual choir and guest readers. Watch for your alma mater during our Honor Roll of HBCUs. Post selfies in your school colors on social media with #CathedralHBCU. In addition, for every gift you give this morning, the Cathedral will make a donation of equal amount up to $10,000 to the Thurgood Marshall College Fund.

COVID Memorial Prayers

Saturdays, 7 am
As COVID-19 deaths reaches 500,000 across the nation, we invite you to submit the names of those lost to the COVID-19 pandemic to be read at a weekly memorial service.

Worship lies at the heart of the Christian life. It is in worship that we express our theology and define our identity. It is through encountering God within worship that we are formed and transformed as the people of God. One of the glories of the Episcopal Church is its liturgical worship. Liturgy refers to the patterns, forms, words, and actions through which public worship is conducted.

The people’s responses are in bold.

This type of note, offering directions about the service is called a “rubric,” which comes from the Latin word rubrica (red)—referring to a time when these instructional notes were always written in red.

When the service is accompanied by music, it often begins with an instrumental piece of music, during which the congregation can prepare for worship.

PRELUDE

My Faith Looks up to Thee

Lift Every Voice and Sing

Sung by the 105 Voices of History HBCU National Choir.

INTROIT

God Is Good

May your struggles keep you near the cross,
And may your troubles show that you need God,
And may your battles end the way they should,
And may your bad days prove that God is good,
And may your whole life prove that God is good.

God is so good.
God is so good.
God is so good.
He’s so good to me.
Bless the Lord who forgives all our sins.
God’s mercy endures for ever.

Jesus said, “The first commandment is this: Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God is the only Lord. Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength. The second is this: Love your neighbor as yourself. There is no other commandment greater than these.” (Mark 12:29-31)
CONFESSION OF SIN AND ABSOLUTION

Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

The presider offers absolution and the people respond, Amen.

TRISAGION • S 100

The Trisagion is an ancient hymn drawn from the Orthodox liturgy. During Lent the Gloria in excelsis (or a song of praise) is not sung and is replaced by the Trisagion or the Kyrie eleison, an ancient petition for mercy.

THE COLLECT FOR THE SECOND SUNDAY IN LENT

The collect is the prayer appointed for each Sunday that “collects” or captures the theme of the day or season of the Church year. It summarizes the attributes of God as revealed in the scriptures for the day.

The Lord be with you.
And also with you.
Let us pray.

O God, whose glory it is always to have mercy: Be gracious to all who have gone astray from your ways, and bring them again with penitent hearts and steadfast faith to embrace and hold fast the unchangeable truth of your Word, Jesus Christ your Son; who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.
The Word of God

The First Lesson

This reading is typically from the Old Testament (Hebrew Scriptures) which Jesus knew and from which he often referred or quoted.

Genesis 17:1-7, 15-16

When Abram was ninety-nine years old, the Lord appeared to Abram, and said to him, “I am God Almighty; walk before me, and be blameless. And I will make my covenant between me and you, and will make you exceedingly numerous.” Then Abram fell on his face; and God said to him, “As for me, this is my covenant with you: You shall be the ancestor of a multitude of nations. No longer shall your name be Abram, but your name shall be Abraham; for I have made you the ancestor of a multitude of nations. I will make you exceedingly fruitful; and I will make nations of you, and kings shall come from you. I will establish my covenant between me and you, and your offspring after you throughout their generations, for an everlasting covenant, to be God to you and to your offspring after you.”

God said to Abraham, “As for Sarai your wife, you shall not call her Sarai, but Sarah shall be her name. I will bless her, and moreover I will give you a son by her. I will bless her, and she shall give rise to nations; kings of peoples shall come from her.”

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

The Psalm

Sung by the cantor.

The psalms are prayers that Jesus used and cover every mood of humanity’s relationship with God and one another.

Psalm 22:22-29

Praise the Lord, you that fear him;
stand in awe of him, O offspring of Israel;
all you of Jacob’s line, give glory.
For he does not despise nor abhor the poor
in their poverty;
neither does he hide his face from them;
but when they cry to him he hears them.
My praise is of him in the great assembly;
I will perform my vows in the presence of those who worship him.
The poor shall eat and be satisfied,
and those who seek the Lord shall praise him:
“May your heart live for ever!”

The Word of God

Thanks be to God.

The Word of God

This reading is typically from the Old Testament (Hebrew Scriptures) which Jesus knew and from which he often referred or quoted.

Genesis 17:1-7, 15-16

Cuando Abram tenía noventa y nueve años, el Señor se le apareció y le dijo: «Yo soy el Dios todopoderoso; vive una vida sin tacha delante de mí, y yo haré una alianza contigo: haré que tengas muchísimos descendientes.»

Entonces Abram se inclinó hasta tocar el suelo con la frente, mientras Dios seguía diciéndole: «Ésta es la alianza que hago contigo: Tú serás el padre de muchas naciones, y ya no vas a llamarte Abram. Desde ahora te llamarás Abraham, porque te voy a hacer padre de muchas naciones. Haré que tus descendientes sean muy numerosos; de ti saldrán reyes y naciones. La alianza que hago contigo, y que haré con todos tus descendientes en el futuro, es que yo seré siempre tu Dios y el Dios de ellos.»

También Dios le dijo a Abraham: «Tu esposa Sarai ya no se va a llamar así. De ahora en adelante se llamará Sara. La voy a bendecir, y te daré un hijo por medio de ella. Sí, voy a bendecirla. Ella será la madre de muchas naciones, y sus descendientes serán reyes de pueblos.»

Demos gracias a Dios.

Salmo 22:22-29

Los que temen al Señor, alábrenle;
glorifiquenle, oh vástago de Jacob;
tengan miedo de él, oh descendencia de Israel;
Porque no menospreció ni abominó la aflicción
de los afligidos,
ni de ellos escondió su rostro;
sino que cuando clamaron a él, los oyó.
De ti será mi alabanza en la gran congregación;
mis votos pagaré delante de los que le temen.
Comerán los pobres, y serán saciados,
alabrán al Señor los que le buscan:
¡Viva su corazón para siempre!
The promise that he would inherit the world did not come to Abraham or to his descendants through the law but through the righteousness of faith. If it is the adherents of the law who are to be the heirs, faith is null and the promise is void. For the law brings wrath; but where there is no law, neither is there violation. For this reason it depends on faith, in order that the promise may rest on grace and be guaranteed to all his descendants, not only to the adherents of the law but also to those who share the faith of Abraham (for he is the father of all of us, as it is written, “I have made you the father of many nations”)—in the presence of the God in whom he believed, who gives life to the dead and calls into existence the things that do not exist. Hoping against hope, he believed that he would become “the father of many nations,” according to what was said, “So numerous shall your descendants be.” He did not weaken in faith when he considered his own body, which was already as good as dead (for he was about a hundred years old), or when he considered the barrenness of Sarah’s womb. No distrust made him waver concerning the promise of God, but he grew strong in his faith as he gave glory to God, being fully convinced that God was able to do what he had promised. Therefore his faith “was reckoned to him as righteousness.” Now the words, “it was reckoned to him,” were written not for his sake alone, but for ours also. It will be reckoned to us who believe in him who Dios prometió a Abraham y a sus descendientes que recibirían el mundo como herencia; pero esta promesa no estaba condicionada al cumplimiento de la ley, sino a la justicia que se basa en la fe. Pues si los que han de recibir la herencia son los que se basan en la ley, entonces la fe resultaría cosa inútil y la promesa de Dios perdería su valor. Porque la ley trae castigo; pero donde no hay ley, tampoco hay faltas contra la ley. Por eso, para que la promesa hecha a Abraham conservara su valor para todos sus descendientes, fue un don gratuito, basado en la fe. Es decir, la promesa no es solamente para los que se basan en la ley, sino también para todos los que se basan en la fe, como Abraham. De esa manera, él viene a ser padre de todos nosotros, como dice la Escritura: «Te he hecho padre de muchas naciones.» Éste es el Dios en quien Abraham creyó, el Dios que da vida a los muertos y crea las cosas que aún no existen. Cuando ya no había esperanza, Abraham creyó y tuvo esperanza, y así vino a ser «padre de muchas naciones», conforme a lo que Dios le había dicho: «Así será el número de tus descendientes.» La fe de Abraham no se debilitó, aunque ya tenía casi cien años de edad y se daba cuenta de que tanto él como Sara ya estaban casi muertos, y que eran demasiado viejos para tener hijos. No dudó ni desconfió de la promesa de Dios, sino que tuvo una fe más fuerte. Alabó a Dios, plenamente convencido de que Dios tiene poder para cumplir lo que promete. Por eso, Dios le tuvo esto en cuenta y lo reconoció como

Romans 4:13-25

Se acordarán y se volverán al Señor todos los confines de la tierra, y todas las familias de las naciones delante de ti se inclinarán.

Porque del Señor es el reino, y él rige las naciones.

HYMN AT THE SEQUENCE
Where He Leads Me
Sung by all.
John S. Norris (1844–1907)

The sequence hymn moves us toward the summit of the Liturgy of the Word—the reading of the Holy Gospel. Gospel means “good news”—specifically the “good news of Jesus.”

1. I can hear my Savior calling, I can hear my Savior calling,
   I'll go with him through the garden, I'll go with him through the garden,
   He will give me grace and glory, He will give me grace and glory,
   Where he leads me I will follow, Where he leads me I will follow,
   "Take thy cross and follow, follow me."
   "Take thy cross and follow, follow me."
   "Take thy cross and follow, follow me."
   "Take thy cross and follow, follow me."
   I'll go with him through the garden, I'll go with him through the garden,
   I'll go with him through the garden, I'll go with him through the garden,
   I'll go with him through the garden, I'll go with him through the garden,
   I'll go with him through the garden, I'll go with him through the garden,
   Where he leads me I will follow, Where he leads me I will follow,
   Where he leads me I will follow, Where he leads me I will follow,
   "Take thy cross and follow, follow me."
   "Take thy cross and follow, follow me."
   "Take thy cross and follow, follow me."
   "Take thy cross and follow, follow me."

justo. Y esto de que Dios se lo tuvo en cuenta, no se escribió solamente de Abraham; se escribió también de nosotros. Pues Dios también nos tiene en cuenta la fe, si creemos en aquel que resucitó a Jesús, nuestro Señor, que fue entregado a la muerte por nuestros pecados y resucitado para hacernos justos.

Palabra del Señor.
Demos gracias a Dios.
THE HOLY GOSPEL

This reading is taken from one of the four Gospels (Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John), which depict the life, teachings, death, resurrection, and ascension of our Lord Jesus Christ. We stand for the Gospel reading to show the particular importance placed on Jesus’ words and actions.

Mark 8:31-38

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.
Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus began to teach his disciples that the Son of Man must undergo great suffering, and be rejected by the elders, the chief priests, and the scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again. He said all this quite openly. And Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him. But turning and looking at his disciples, he rebuked Peter and said, “Get behind me, Satan! For you are setting your mind not on divine things but on human things.” He called the crowd with his disciples, and said to them, “If any want to become my followers, let them deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me. For those who want to save their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake, and for the sake of the gospel, will save it. For what will it profit them to gain the whole world and forfeit their life? Indeed, what can they give in return for their life? Those who are ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, of them the Son of Man will also be ashamed when he comes in the glory of his Father with the holy angels.”

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Marcos 8:31-38

Santo Evangelio de nuestro Señor Jesucristo, según Marcos.
¡Gloria a ti, Cristo Señor!

Jesús comenzó a enseñarles que el Hijo del hombre tendría que sufrir mucho, y que sería rechazado por los ancianos, por los jefes de los sacerdotes y por los maestros de la ley. Les dijo que lo iban a matar, pero que resucitaría a los tres días. Esto se lo advirtió claramente. Entonces Pedro lo llevó aparte y comenzó a reprenderlo. Pero Jesús se volvió, miró a los discípulos y reprendió a Pedro, diciéndole: «¡Apártate de mí, Satanás! Tú no ves las cosas como las ve Dios, sino como las ven los hombres.» Luego Jesús llamó a sus discípulos y a la gente, y dijo: «Si alguno quiere ser discípulo mío, olvidese de sí mismo, cargue con su cruz y sigame. Porque el que quiera salvar su vida, la perderá; pero el que pierda la vida por causa mía y por aceptar el evangelio, la salvará. ¿De qué le sirve al hombre ganar el mundo entero, si pierde la vida? O también, ¿cuánto podrá pagar el hombre por su vida? Pues si alguno se avergüenza de mí y de mi mensaje delante de esta gente infiel y pecadora, también el Hijo del hombre se avergonzará de él cuando venga con la gloria de su Padre y con los santos ángeles.»

El Evangelio del Señor.
Te alabamos, Cristo Señor.

THE SERMON

The sermon directly follows the Gospel because it is to be grounded in the scriptures. It illuminates the scriptural readings and relates them to daily life.

The Very Reverend Randolph Marshall Hollerith
The Nicene Creed

The word “creed” comes from the Latin “credo” for “I believe.” First formulated at the Council of Nicaea in 325 AD and confirmed in 381 AD, the Nicene Creed is said at the Holy Eucharist and reflects what Christians believe regarding the relationship between the Father, Jesus, and the Holy Spirit: The Holy Trinity.

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation,
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Creemos en un solo Dios,
Padre todopoderoso,
Creador de cielo y tierra,
de todo lo visible e invisible.

Creemos en un solo Señor, Jesucristo, Hijo único de Dios,
nacido del Padre antes de todos los siglos:
Dios de Dios, Luz de Luz,
Dios verdadero de Dios verdadero,
engendrado, no creado,
de la misma naturaleza que el Padre,
por quien todo fue hecho;
que por nosotros
y por nuestra salvación
bajó del cielo:
por obra del Espíritu Santo
se encarnó de María, la Virgen,
y se hizo hombre.
Por nuestra causa fue crucificado
en tiempos de Poncio Pilato:
padeció y fue sepultado.
Resucitó al tercer día, según las Escrituras,
subió al cielo
y está sentado a la derecha del Padre.
De nuevo vendrá con gloria para juzgar a vivos y muertos,
y su reino no tendrá fin.

Creemos en el Espíritu Santo,
Señor y dador de vida,
que procede del Padre y del Hijo,
que con el Padre y el Hijo recibe una misma adoración y gloria,
y que habló por los profetas.
Creemos en la Iglesia, que es una, santa, católica y apostólica.
Reconocemos un solo Bautismo
para el perdón de los pecados.
Esperamos la resurrección de los muertos
y la vida del mundo futuro. Amén.
THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

We pray for ourselves and particularly on behalf of others. In our prayers we pray for the for Universal Church, the nation and all who govern, the welfare of the world, the concerns of our community of faith, including those who are in need or suffer, and for the departed. We are reminded in prayer that we are part of a larger fellowship, the Church—the Body of Christ.

After each intercession,

Hear us, O God.
Your mercy is great.

The presider prays the concluding collect, and the people respond, Amen.

THE PEACE

The peace of the Lord be always with you.
And also with you.

The Holy Communion

THE OFFERTORY

Having listened to the Word of God, affirmed our faith, confessed our sins, received forgiveness and shared in the peace, we are prepared for the drama and miracle of the Holy Communion. At the offertory, we gratefully offer back to God some of what God has given us, symbolically in the bread and wine, and in the money we give.

All are invited to make a gift to support the Cathedral’s ministry of sharing God’s love with the world by texting the dollar amount you wish to give to (202) 856-9005 or visiting cathedral.org/support.

The altar is prepared for Holy Communion.

ANTHEM AT THE OFFERTORY

If Ye Love Me

Sung by the choir.

If ye love me, keep my commandments.
And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you forever;
Even the Spirit of truth.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

In the Great Thanksgiving, we do what Jesus himself asked us to do: thank God and recall all that God has done for us in the life, death, and resurrection of Christ. The Great Thanksgiving, or Eucharistic Prayer, is a long prayer with four parts. Each of these four parts corresponds to a different action of Jesus at the Last Supper, where he took, blessed, broke, and gave bread and wine as sacraments of his body and blood. We begin the Great Thanksgiving with the Sursum corda, meaning “Lift up your hearts.”

The Lord be with you.
And also with you.
Lift up your hearts.
We lift them to the Lord.
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give God thanks and praise.
It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

Through Jesus Christ our Lord; who was tempted in every way as we are, yet did not sin. By his grace we are able to triumph over every evil, and to live no longer for ourselves alone, but for him who died for us and rose again.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

SANTUS & BENEDICTUS • S 124
Sung by all.
D. Hurd

The Sanctus (Holy, Holy, Holy) is the hymn of praise that never ceases before God and is based on Isaiah 6:3.

We recall God’s acts of salvation history. The presider says the “Words of Institution” that Jesus said at the Last Supper. At the Memorial Acclamation we remember Christ’s death, resurrection, and promise to return at the end of the age. During the prayer, the Holy Spirit is invoked to bless and sanctify the gifts of bread and wine.

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:
Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.
The Great Amen is when the congregation with a unified great voice concurs with all that the presider has prayed. It is the only “Amen” in all capitals found in the Book of Common Prayer, signifying the greatness of the congregation’s response.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

THE LORD’S PRAYER

We pray together the prayer that Jesus taught his disciples to pray. The link between our daily bread and the spiritual food we receive in the Eucharist is an ancient connection.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Notre Père..., Padre nuestro..., Vater unser...,

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Padre nuestro que estás en el cielo, santificado sea tu Nombre, venga tu reino, hágase tu voluntad, en la tierra como en el cielo.
Danos hoy nuestro pan de cada día.
Perdona nuestras ofensas, como también nosotros perdonamos a los que nos ofenden.
No nos dejes caer en tentación y líbranos del mal.
Porque tuyo es el reino, tuyo es el poder, y tuya es la gloria, ahora y por siempre. Amén.

THE INVITATION TO HOLY COMMUNION

A spiritual communion is a personal devotional that anyone can pray at any time to express their desire to receive Holy Communion at that moment, but in which circumstances impede them from actually receiving Holy Communion.

The presider invites the following prayer to be said by all.

My Jesus,
I believe that you are truly present in the Blessed Sacrament of the Altar.
I love you above all things,
and long for you in my soul.
Since I cannot receive you in the Sacrament of your Body and Blood, come spiritually into my heart.
Cleanse and strengthen me with your grace;
let me never be separated from you.
May I live in you, and you in me,
in this life and the life to come. Amen.

LA INVITACIÓN A LA SANTA EUCHARISTÍA

La comunión espiritual es una devoción personal que cualquier persona puede orar en cualquier momento expresando su deseo de recibir la Santa Comunión en ese instante, pero en que las circunstancias le impide de recibir los elementos reales de la Santa Comunión.

La presidenta invita a todos a rezar esta oración.

Jesús mío,
creo que estás verdaderamente presente
en el Sagrado Sacramento del Altar.
Te amo por encima de todas las cosas,
y te anhelo en mi alma.
Como no te puedo recibir
en el Sacramento de tu Cuerpo y Sangre, entra al menos espiritualmente en mi corazón.
Límpiame y fortaléceme con tu gracia;
nunca permitas que me separe de ti.
Que pueda vivir en ti, y tú en mí,
en esta vida y en la vida venidera. Amén.

ANTHEM DURING THE COMMUNION

I'm Available to You
Sung by the cantor.

Carlis L. Moody, Jr. (b. 1957)

You gave me my hands to reach out to man;
To show him your love, and your perfect plan.
You gave me my ears; I can hear your voice so clear.
I can hear the cries of sinners,
But cannot wipe away their tears.

You gave me my voice to speak your word.
To sing all your praises, to those who never heard,
But with my eyes I can see a need for more availability.
I’ve seen the hearts that have been broken;
So many people to be free.

Refrain
Lord, I’m available to you.
My will I give to you;
I’ll do what you say to.
Use me, Lord, to show someone the way,
And enable me to say,
“My storage is empty, and I am available to you.”

Now I’m giving back to you all the tools you gave to me;
My hands, my ears, my voice, my eyes
So you can use them as you please.
I have emptied out my cup so that you can fill me up.
Now I’m free; I just want to be more available to you.

Refrain

Ah! Use me, Lord, to show someone the way,
And enable me to say,
“My storage is empty, and I am available to you.”
THE POSTCOMMUNION PRAYER

God of our pilgrimage, you have fed us with the bread of heaven. Refresh and sustain us as we go forward on our journey, in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Dios de nuestra peregrinación, nos has nutrido con el pan del cielo. Refréscanos y susténtanos mientras avanzamos en nuestro camino, en el nombre de Jesucristo nuestro Señor. Amén.

THE SOLEMN PRAYER OVER THE PEOPLE

During the season of Lent, in place of a final blessing, the presider offers a Prayer over the People.

The presider prays over the people, and the people respond, Amen.

HYMN AT THE CLOSING

_At the Cross_
_Sung by all._
Ralph E. Hudson (1843–1901)

1. Alas! and did my Savior bleed? And did my Sovereign die?
2. Was it for crimes that I have done he groaned upon the tree?
3. Well might the sun in darkness hide and shut his glories in,
4. But drops of grief can ne’er repay the debt of love I owe:

Would he devote that sacred head for such a one as I?
A-maz-ing pi-ty! Grace un-known! And love be-yond de-gree!
When Christ, the mighty maker died for man the creature’s sin.
Here, Lord, I give my-self a-way; ’tis all that I can do!

At the cross, at the cross where I first saw the light, and the burden of my heart rolled a-way.
It was there by faith I re-ceived my sight, and now I am hap-py all the day!

THE DISMISSAL

Let us bless the Lord. Thanks be to God.
Bendigamos al Señor. Demos gracias a Dios.

Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCUs) are a source of accomplishment and great pride for the African American community as well as the entire nation. The Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended, defines an HBCU as: “...any historically black college or university that was established prior to 1964, whose principal mission was, and is, the education of black Americans, and that is accredited by a nationally recognized accrediting agency or association determined by the Secretary [of Education] to be a reliable authority as to the quality of training offered or is, according to such an agency or association, making reasonable progress toward accreditation.” HBCUs offer all students, regardless of race, an opportunity to develop their skills and talents. These institutions train young people who go on to serve domestically and internationally in the professions as entrepreneurs and in the public and private sectors.

Thank you for worshiping with Washington National Cathedral, your National Cathedral.

The work of the Cathedral in service to the city, the nation, and the world is made possible entirely through private support. The gifts of people from across the country and the world are behind every worship service, concert, public program, and the daily work of maintaining this historic landmark. It is only through your generosity that the Cathedral can fully live into its priorities of welcoming, deepening, convening, and serving.

We invite you to support the mission and ministry of the Cathedral. You may text the dollar amount you wish to give to (202) 856-9005 or visit cathedral.org/support to donate. You may also mail a check to Washington National Cathedral, P.O. Box 98283, Washington, DC 20090-8283.

Thank you in advance for your generosity. Please know that your participation with us today has been a blessing.
