Worship lies at the heart of the Christian life. It is in worship that we express our theology and define our identity. It is through encountering God within worship that we are formed and transformed as the people of God. One of the glories of the Episcopal Church is its liturgical worship. Liturgy refers to the patterns, forms, words, and actions through which public worship is conducted.

The people’s responses are in bold.

This type of note, offering directions about the service is called a “rubric,” which comes from the Latin word rubrica (red)—referring to a time when these instructional notes were always written in red.

When the service is accompanied by music, it often begins with an instrumental piece of music, during which the congregation can prepare for worship.

Jesus Walked This Lonesome Valley
Anonymous American melody

Jesus walked this lonesome valley;
He had to walk it by himself.
Oh, nobody else could walk it for him;
He had to walk it by himself.
We must walk this lonesome valley;
We have to walk it by ourselves.
Oh, nobody else can walk it for us;
We have to walk it by ourselves.
You must go and stand your trial;
You have to stand it by yourself.
Oh, nobody else can stand it for you;
You have to stand it by yourself.
HYMN AT THE PROCESSION • 150

Forty Days and Forty Nights

We begin our worship as a gathered community by praising God in song.

THE OPENING ACCLAMATION

Bless the Lord who forgives all our sins.
God’s mercy endures for ever.

INVITATION TO A HOLY LENT

Dear People of God: The first Christians observed with great devotion the days of our Lord’s passion and resurrection, and it became the custom of the Church to prepare for them by a season of penitence and fasting. This season of Lent provided a time in which converts to the faith were prepared for Holy Baptism. It was also a time when those who, because of notorious sins, had been separated from the body of the faithful were reconciled by penitence and forgiveness, and restored to the fellowship of the Church. Thereby, the whole congregation was put in mind of the message of pardon and absolution set forth in the Gospel of our Savior, and of the need which all Christians continually have to renew their repentance and faith.

I invite you, therefore, in the name of the Church, to the observance of a holy Lent, by self-examination and repentance; by prayer, fasting, and self-denial; and by reading and meditating on God’s holy Word. And, to make a right beginning of repentance, and as a mark of our mortal nature, let us now kneel before the Lord, our maker and redeemer.

INVITACIÓN A UNA SANTA CUARESMA

Amado Pueblo de Dios: Los primeros cristianos observaron con gran devoción los días de la pasión y resurrección de nuestro Señor, y se hizo costumbre en la Iglesia prepararse para ellos por medio de una estación de penitencia y ayuno. Esta estación de Cuaresma proporcionaba la ocasión en que los catecúmenos eran preparados para el Santo Bautismo. Era la ocasión, también, en la que cuantos se habían separado del cuerpo de los fieles, a causa de pecados notorios, eran reconciliados mediante la penitencia y el perdón, y eran restaurados a la comunión de la Iglesia. De este modo, se recordaba a toda la congregación el mensaje de perdón y absolución proclamado en el Evangelio de nuestro Salvador, y la necesidad constante de todo cristiano de renovar su arrepentimiento y su fe.

Por tanto, en nombre de la Iglesia, les invito a la observancia de una santa Cuaresma, mediante el examen de conciencia y el arrepentimiento; por la oración, el ayuno y la autonegación; y por la lectura y meditación de la santa Palabra de Dios. Y, para comenzar debidamente nuestro arrepentimiento, y como señal de nuestra naturaleza mortal, arrodillémonos ahora ante el Señor, nuestro hacedor y redentor.
Most holy and merciful God: We confess to you and to one another, and to the whole communion of saints in heaven and on earth, that we have sinned by our own fault in thought, word, and deed; by what we have done, and by what we have left undone.

We have not loved you with our whole heart, and mind, and strength. We have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We have not forgiven others, as we have been forgiven.

Have mercy on us.

All our past unfaithfulness: the pride, hypocrisy and impatience of our lives, we confess to you.

Have mercy on us.

Our self-indulgent appetites and ways, and our exploitation of other people, we confess to you.

Have mercy on us.

Our anger at our own frustration and our envy of those more fortunate than ourselves, we confess to you.

Have mercy on us.

Our intemperate love of worldly goods and comforts, and our dishonesty in daily life and work, we confess to you.

Have mercy on us.

Our negligence in prayer and worship, and our failure to commend the faith that is in us, we confess to you.

Have mercy on us.

Accept our repentance, Lord, for the wrongs we have done: for our blindness to human need and suffering, and our indifference to injustice and cruelty.

For all false judgments, for uncharitable thoughts toward our neighbors, and for our prejudice and contempt toward those who differ from us, have mercy on us.

Accept our repentance, O Lord.

For our waste and pollution of your creation, and our lack of concern for those who come after us, have mercy on us.

Accept our repentance, O Lord.

Restore us, good Lord, and let your anger depart from us.
Accomplish in us the work of your salvation,

That we may show forth your glory in the world.

By the cross and passion of your Son our Lord,

Bring us with your saints to the joy of resurrection.

KYRIE ELEISON

Silence is kept.

The presider offers the declaration of forgiveness, and the people respond, Amen.

THE COLLECT FOR THE FIRST SUNDAY IN LENT

The collect is the prayer appointed for each Sunday that "collects" or captures the theme of the day or season of the Church year. It summarizes the attributes of God as revealed in the scriptures for the day.

The Lord be with you.
And also with you.
Let us pray.

Almighty God, whose blessed Son was led by the Spirit to be tempted by Satan: Come quickly to help us who are assaulted by many temptations; and, as you know the weaknesses of each of us, let each one find you mighty to save; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.
the first lesson

This reading is typically from the Old Testament (Hebrew Scriptures) which Jesus knew and from which he often referred or quoted.

Genesis 9:8-17

God said to Noah and to his sons with him, “As for me, I am establishing my covenant with you and your descendants after you, and with every living creature that is with you, the birds, the domestic animals, and every animal of the earth with you, as many as came out of the ark. I establish my covenant with you, that never again shall all flesh be cut off by the waters of a flood, and never again shall there be a flood to destroy the earth.” God said, “This is the sign of the covenant that I make between me and you and every living creature that is with you, for all future generations: I have set my bow in the clouds, and it shall be a sign of the covenant between me and the earth. When I bring clouds over the earth and the bow is seen in the clouds, I will remember my covenant that is between me and you and every living creature of all flesh; and the waters shall never again become a flood to destroy all flesh. When the bow is in the clouds, I will see it and remember the everlasting covenant between God and every living creature of all flesh that is on the earth.”

God said to Noah, “This is the sign of the covenant that I have established between me and all flesh that is on the earth.”

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

the psalm

Sung by the cantor.

The psalms are prayers that Jesus used and cover every mood of humanity’s relationship with God and one another.

Psalm 25:1-8

To you, O Lord, I lift up my soul;
my God, I put my trust in you;
let me not be humiliated,
nor let my enemies triumph over me.
Let none who look to you be put to shame;
let the treacherous be disappointed
in their schemes.
Show me your ways, O Lord,
and teach me your paths.
Lead me in your truth and teach me,
for you are the God of my salvation;
in you have I trusted all the day long.
Remember, O Lord, your compassion and love, for they are from everlasting.
Remember not the sins of my youth and my transgressions; remember me according to your love and for the sake of your goodness, O Lord. Gracious and upright is the Lord; therefore he teaches sinners in his way. He guides the humble in doing right and teaches his way to the lowly.

Acuérdate, oh Señor, de tus piedades y de tus misericordias, porque son perpetuas. De los pecados de mi juventud, y de mis rebeliones, no te acuerdes; conforme a tu misericordia acuérdate de mí, por tu bondad, oh Señor. Bueno y recto es el Señor; por tanto, enseña a los pecadores el camino. Encamina a los humildes por el juicio, y enseña a los mansos su carrera.

THE SECOND LESSON
This reading, taken from the New Testament, is typically from a letter (epistle) to the early Church, the Acts of the Apostles, or the Revelation to John.

1 Peter 3:18-22

Cristo mismo sufrió la muerte por nuestros pecados, una vez para siempre. Él era inocente, pero sufrió por los malos, para llevarlos a ustedes a Dios. En su fragilidad humana, murió; pero resucitó con una vida espiritual, y de esta manera fue a proclamar su victoria a los espíritus que estaban presos. Éstos habían sido desobedientes en tiempos antiguos, en los días de Noé, cuando Dios esperaba con paciencia mientras se construía la barca, en la que algunas personas, ocho en total, fueron salvadas por medio del agua. Y aquella agua representaba el agua del bautismo, por medio del cual somos ahora salvados. El bautismo no consiste en limpiar el cuerpo, sino en pedirle a Dios una conciencia limpia; y nos salva por la resurrección de Jesucristo, que subió al cielo y está a la derecha de Dios, y al que han quedado sujetos los ángeles y demás seres espirituales que tienen autoridad y poder.

Palabra del Señor.
Demos gracias a Dios.
The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

Glory to you, Lord Christ.

After Jesus was baptized, he was led up by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil. He fasted forty days and forty nights, and afterwards he was famished. The tempter came and said to him, “If you are the Son of God, command these stones to become loaves of bread.” But he answered, “It is written, ‘One does not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes from the mouth of God.’” Then the devil took him to the holy city and placed him on the pinnacle of the temple, saying to him, “If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down; for it is written, ‘He will command his angels concerning you,’ and ‘On their hands they will bear you up, so that you will not dash your foot against a stone.’” Jesus said to him, “Again it is written, ‘Do not put the Lord your God to the test.’” Again, the devil took him to a very high mountain and showed him all the kingdoms of the world and their splendor; and he said to him, “All these I will give you, if you will fall down and worship.
me.” Jesus said to him, “Away with you, Satan! for it is written, ‘Worship the Lord your God, and serve only him.”’ Then the devil left him, and suddenly angels came and waited on him.

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Christ.

THE SERMON

Bishop Vashti Murphy McKenzie
Presiding Prelate, Tenth Episcopal District, African Methodist Episcopal Church, Dallas, Texas

The sermon directly follows the Gospel because it is to be grounded in the scriptures. It illuminates the scriptural readings and relates them to daily life.

ANTHEM

O Love of God, How Strong and True

O Love of God, how strong and true,
Eternal and yet ever new;
Uncomprehended and unbought,
Beyond all knowledge and all thought.

O wide-embracing, wondrous Love,
We read thee in the sky above;
We read thee in the earth below,
In seas that swell and streams that flow.

We read thee best in him who came
To bear for us the cross of shame,
Sent by the Father from on high,
Our life to live, our death to die.

We read thy power to bless and save
E’en in the darkness of the grave;
Still more in resurrection light
We read the fulness of thy might.

(Horatius Bonar, 1808–1889)
THE NICE Creed

The word “creed” comes from the Latin “credo” for “I believe.” First formulated at the Council of Nicaea in 325 AD and confirmed in 381 AD, the Nicene Creed is said at the Holy Eucharist and reflects what Christians believe regarding the relationship between the Father, Jesus, and the Holy Spirit: The Holy Trinity.

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation, he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

THE PEACE

The peace of the Lord be always with you.
And also with you.

Creemos en un solo Dios, Padre todopoderoso, Creador de cielo y tierra, de todo lo visible e invisible.

Creemos en un solo Señor, Jesucristo, Hijo único de Dios, nacido del Padre antes de todos los siglos: Dios de Dios, Luz de Luz, Dios verdadero de Dios verdadero, engendrado, no creado, de la misma naturaleza que el Padre, por quien todo fue hecho; que por nosotros y por nuestra salvación bajó del cielo: por obra del Espíritu Santo se encarnó de María, la Virgen, y se hizo hombre. Por nuestra causa fue crucificado en tiempos de Poncio Pilato: padeció y fue sepultado. Resucitó al tercer día, según las Escrituras, subió al cielo y está sentado a la derecha del Padre. De nuevo vendrá con gloria para juzgar a vivos y muertos, y su reino no tendrá fin.

Creemos en el Espíritu Santo, Señor y dador de vida, que procede del Padre y del Hijo, que con el Padre y el Hijo recibe una misma adoración y gloria, y que habló por los profetas. Creemos en la Iglesia, que es una, santa, católica y apostólica. Reconocemos un solo Bautismo para el perdón de los pecados. Esperamos la resurrección de los muertos y la vida del mundo futuro. Amén.

La paz del Señor sea siempre con ustedes.
Y con tu espíritu.
The Holy Communion

The Offertory

Having listened to the Word of God, affirmed our faith, confessed our sins, received forgiveness and shared in the peace, we are prepared for the drama and miracle of the Holy Communion. At the offertory, we gratefully offer back to God some of what God has given us, symbolically in the bread and wine, and in the money we give.

All are invited to make a gift to support the Cathedral’s ministry of sharing God’s love with the world by texting the dollar amount you wish to give to (202) 866-9005 or visiting cathedral.org/support.

The altar is prepared for Holy Communion.

Anthem at the Offertory

“Turn Thee to Me”

Sung by the cantor. Antonín Dvořák (1841–1904)

from Biblical Songs, Op. 99, No. 8

Turn thee to me and have mercy,
For I am desolate and sore distressed.
Great are the sorrows of my heart;
Bring me out of my distress.

Oh, be merciful, look on my sorrow,
See mine affliction and forgive me all my wickedness.
Oh, keep my soul in safety and deliver me.
Let me never be confounded, for my hope is in thee.

(after Psalm 25:16-19)

The Great Thanksgiving

In the Great Thanksgiving, we do what Jesus himself asked us to do: thank God and recall all that God has done for us in the life, death, and resurrection of Christ. The Great Thanksgiving, or Eucharistic Prayer, is a long prayer with four parts. Each of these four parts corresponds to a different action of Jesus at the Last Supper, where he took, blessed, broke, and gave bread and wine as sacraments of his body and blood. We begin the Great Thanksgiving with the Sursum corda, meaning “Lift up your hearts.”

The Lord be with you.
And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.
We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give God thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

Through Jesus Christ our Lord; who was tempted in every way as we are, yet did not sin. By his grace we are able to triumph over every evil, and to live no longer for ourselves alone, but for him who died for us and rose again.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:
The Sanctus (Holy, Holy, Holy) is the hymn of praise that never ceases before God and is based on Isaiah 6:3.

We recall God’s acts of salvation history. The presider says the “Words of Institution” that Jesus said at the Last Supper. At the Memorial Acclamation we remember Christ’s death, resurrection, and promise to return at the end of the age. During the prayer, the Holy Spirit is invoked to bless and sanctify the gifts of bread and wine.

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

The Great Amen is when the congregation with a unified great voice concurs with all that the presider has prayed. It is the only “Amen” in all capitals found in the Book of Common Prayer, signifying the greatness of the congregation’s response.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.
We pray together the prayer that Jesus taught his disciples to pray. The link between our daily bread and the spiritual food we receive in the Eucharist is an ancient connection.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Notre Père..., Padre nuestro..., Vater unser...

Our Father, who art in heaven,
    hallowed be thy Name,
    thy kingdom come,
    thy will be done,
    on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those
    who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
    but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,
    and the power, and the glory,
    for ever and ever. Amen.

Padre nuestro que estás en el cielo,
    santificado sea tu Nombre,
    venga tu reino,
    hágase tu voluntad,
    en la tierra como en el cielo.

Danos hoy nuestro pan de cada día.
Perdona nuestras ofensas,
    como también nosotros perdonamos
    a los que nos ofenden.

No nos dejes caer en tentación
    y líbranos del mal.

Porque tuyo es el reino,
    tuyo es el poder,
    y tuya es la gloria,
    ahora y por siempre. Amén.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

The presider breaks the bread in silence.

FRACTION ANTHEM • S 161

Agnus Dei

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world: have mercy on us.

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world: have mercy on us.

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world: grant us peace.
THE INVITATION TO HOLY COMMUNION

A spiritual communion is a personal devotional that anyone can pray at any time to express their desire to receive Holy Communion at that moment, but in which circumstances impede them from actually receiving Holy Communion.

The presider invites the following prayer to be said by all.

My Jesus,
I believe that you are truly present in the Blessed Sacrament of the Altar.
I love you above all things,
and long for you in my soul.
Since I cannot receive you in the Sacrament of your Body and Blood, come spiritually into my heart.
Cleanse and strengthen me with your grace;
let me never be separated from you.
May I live in you, and you in me,
in this life and the life to come. Amen.

Worth Fighting For

You met me, deep in my despair,
To show me you would never leave me there.
You claimed because I was made for so much more,
I am your child, and I'm worth fighting for.
Though heavy, with the weight of my mistakes,
You carried me and refused to let me sink
under the pressure.
You meant for me to soar.
I am your child,
And I'm worth fighting for.

Refrain

Eyes haven’t seen,
Ears haven’t heard,
All that you have planned for me,
And nothing can separate me
from your love,
When there’s so much more,
Still worth fighting for.

Sung by the cantor.

Aaron W. Lindsey
and Brian Courtney Wilson (b. 1971)

Now I'm moving, by faith and not by sight,
Towards victory, by the power of your might.
You're straightening out my path,
And opening every door.
I am your child,
And I'm worth fighting for.

Refrain

That's why I'm pressing towards the mark,
Cause the calling on my life is worth fighting for.
It's worth it.
So worth it.
Because the peace it brings is worth fighting for.
THE POSTCOMMUNION PRAYER

God of our pilgrimage,
you have fed us with the bread of heaven.
Refresh and sustain us
as we go forward on our journey,
in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Dios de nuestra peregrinación,
nos has nutrido con el pan del cielo.
Refrescamos y sustentamos
mientras avanzamos en nuestro camino, en el nombre de Jesucristo nuestro Señor. Amén.

During the season of Lent, in place of a final blessing, the presider offers a Prayer over the People.

THE SOLEMN PRAYER OVER THE PEOPLE

The presider prays over the people, and the people respond, Amen.

HYMN AT THE CLOSING • 149

Eternal Lord of Love, Behold Your Church

Sung by all.

Old 124th

1. Eternal Lord of love, behold your Church
2. So daily dying to the way of self,
3. If dead in you, so in you we arise, led by your cloud by day, by night your fire,

we walk the road, Lord Jesus, that you trod,
and as through stony ground the green shoots break,

moved by your love and knowing ourselves baptized knowing our selves baptized and glorified in springtime
and as through stony ground the green shoots break,

far off yet here—the goal of all desire,
dressed in to your death; so we are dead and live with you in God.

THE DISMISSAL

Let us bless the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Thank you for worshiping with Washington National Cathedral, your National Cathedral.

The work of the Cathedral in service to the city, the nation, and the world is made possible entirely through private support. The gifts of people from across the country and the world are behind every worship service, concert, public program, and the daily work of maintaining this historic landmark. It is only through your generosity that the Cathedral can fully live into its priorities of welcoming, deepening, convening, and serving.

We invite you to support the mission and ministry of the Cathedral. You may text the dollar amount you wish to give to (202) 856-9005 or visit cathedral.org/support to donate. You may also mail a check to Washington National Cathedral, P.O. Box 98283, Washington, DC 20090-8283.

Thank you in advance for your generosity. Please know that your participation with us today has been a blessing.
