The Holy Eucharist

The Third Sunday after Pentecost

June 21, 2020 • 11:15 AM

WASHINGTON NATIONAL CATHEDRAL

Worship lies at the heart of the Christian life. It is in worship that we express our theology and define our identity. It is through encountering God within worship that we are formed and transformed as the people of God. One of the glories of the Episcopal Church is its liturgical worship. Liturgy refers to the patterns, forms, words, and actions through which public worship is conducted.

The people's responses are in bold.

This type of note, offering directions about the service is called a "rubric," which comes from the Latin word rubrica (red)—referring to a time when these instructional notes were always written in red.

THE ENTRANCE RITE

When the service is accompanied by music, it often begins with an instrumental piece of music, during which the congregation can prepare for worship.

St. Thomas (Williams)

We begin our worship as a gathered community by praising God in song.

THE OPENING ACCLAMATION

Blessed be God: Father, Son and Holy Spirit.
 And blessed be God's kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

THE COLLECT FOR PURITY

This prayer was an English rendering of a Latin prayer that began the liturgy in the medieval church before the Reformation. It remains a distinctive part of Episcopal worship to this day.

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Dios omnipotente, para quien todos los corazones están manifiestos, todos los deseos son conocidos y ningún secreto se halla encubierto: Purifica los pensamientos de nuestros corazones por la inspiración de tu Santo Espíritu, para que perfectamente te amemos y dignamente proclamemos la grandeza de tu santo Nombre; por Cristo nuestro Señor. Amén.

The Gloria, or some other song of praise, centers the service on the God we gather to praise in our worship.

Glo-ry to God in the high - est, and peace to his peo-ple on earth. Lord

THE WORD OF GOD

THE COLLECT FOR THE THIRD SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

The collect is the prayer appointed for each Sunday that “collects” or captures the theme of the day or season of the Church year. It summarizes the attributes of God as revealed in the scriptures for the day.

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Let us pray.

O Lord, make us have perpetual love and reverence for your holy Name, for you never fail to help and govern those whom you have set upon the sure foundation of your loving-kindness; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE FIRST READING

This reading is typically from the Old Testament (Hebrew Scriptures) which Jesus knew and from which he often referred or quoted.

Genesis 21:8-21

Génesis 21:8-21

The child grew, and was weaned; and Abraham made a great feast on the day that Isaac was weaned. But Sarah saw the son of Hagar the Egyptian, whom she had borne to Abraham, playing with her son Isaac. So she said to Abraham, “Cast out this slave woman with her son; for the son of this slave woman shall not inherit along with my son Isaac.” The matter was very distressing to Abraham on account of his son. But God said to Abraham, “Do not be distressed because of the boy and because of your slave woman; whatever Sarah says to you, do as she tells you, for it is through Isaac that offspring shall be named for you. As for the son of the slave woman, I will make a nation of him also, because he is your offspring.” So Abraham rose early in the morning, and took bread and a skin of water, and gave it to Hagar, putting it on her shoulder, along with the child, and sent her away. And she departed, and wandered about in the wilderness of Beer-sheba. When the water in the skin was gone, she cast the child under one of the bushes. Then she went and sat down opposite him a good way off, about the distance of a bowshot; for she said, “Do not let me look on the death of the child.” And as she sat opposite him, she lifted up her voice and wept. And God heard the voice of the boy; and the angel of God called to Hagar from heaven, and said to her, “What troubles you, Hagar? Do not be afraid; for God has heard the voice of the boy where he is. Come, lift up the boy and hold him

El niño Isaac creció y lo destetaron. El día en que fue destetado, Abraham hizo una gran fiesta. Pero Sara vio que el hijo que Agar la egipcia le había dado a Abraham, se burlaba de Isaac. Entonces fue a decirle a Abraham: «¡Que se vayan esa esclava y su hijo! Mi hijo Isaac no tiene por qué compartir su herencia con el hijo de esa esclava.» Esto le dolió mucho a Abraham, porque se trataba de un hijo suyo. Pero Dios le dijo: «No te preocupes por el muchacho ni por tu esclava. Haz todo lo que Sara te pida, porque tu descendencia vendrá por medio de Isaac. En cuanto al hijo de la esclava, yo haré que también de él salga una gran nación, porque es hijo tuyo.» Al día siguiente, muy temprano, Abraham le dio a Agar pan y un cuero con agua; se lo puso todo sobre la espalda, le entregó al niño Ismael y la despidió. Ella se fue, y estuvo caminando sin rumbo por el desierto de Beerseba. Cuando se acabó el agua que había en el cuero, dejó al niño debajo de un arbusto y fue a sentarse a cierta distancia de allí, pues no quería verlo morir. Cuando ella se sentó, el niño comenzó a llorar. Dios oyó que el muchacho lloraba; y desde el cielo el ángel de Dios llamó a Agar y le dijo: «¿Qué te pasa, Agar? No tengas miedo, porque Dios ha oído el llanto del muchacho ahí donde está. Anda, ve a buscar al niño, y no lo sueltes de la mano, pues yo haré que de él salga una gran nación.» Entonces Dios hizo que Agar viera un pozo de agua. Ella fue y llenó de agua el cuero, y dio de beber a Ismael. Dios ayudó al muchacho, fast with your hand, for I will make a great nation of him.” Then God opened her eyes and she saw a well of water. She went, and filled the skin with water, and gave the boy a drink. God was with the boy, and he grew up; he lived in the wilderness, and became an expert with the bow. He lived in the wilderness of Paran; and his mother got a wife for him from the land of Egypt.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

el cual creció y vivió en el desierto de Parán, y llegó a ser un buen tirador de arco. Más tarde su madre lo casó con una mujer egipcia.

THE PSALM

Sung by the cantor.

arr. Michael McCarthy (b. 1966)

The psalms are prayers that Jesus used and cover every mood of humanity's relationship with God and one another.

Psalm 69:8-20

Salmo 69:8-20

Surely, for your sake have I suffered reproach, and shame has covered my face.
I have become a stranger to my own kindred,
an alien to my mother's children.
Zeal for your house has eaten me up;
the scorn of those who scorn you has fallen upon me.
I humbled myself with fasting,
but that was turned to my reproach.
I put on sack-cloth also,
and became a byword among them.
Those who sit at the gate murmur against me,
and the drunkards make songs about me.
But as for me, this is my prayer to you,
at the time you have set, O Lord:
“In your great mercy, O God,
answer me with your unfailing help.
Save me from the mire; do not let me sink;
let me be rescued from those who hate me
and out of the deep waters.
Let not the torrent of waters wash over me,
neither let the deep swallow me up;
do not let the Pit shut its mouth upon me.
Answer me, O Lord, for your love is kind;
in your great compassion, turn to me.”
“Hide not your face from your servant;
be swift and answer me, for I am in distress.
Draw near to me and redeem me;
because of my enemies deliver me.”

Ciertamente por amor a ti he sufrido afrenta;
la vergüenza ha cubierto mi rostro.
Extranjero he llegado a ser para mis propios hermanos, forastero para los hijos de mi madre.
Me consumió el celo de tu casa;
las ofensas de los que te insultaban cayeron
sobre mí.
Me humillé con ayunos,
mas esto me ha sido por afrenta.
Me vestí además de luto,
y vine a serles como proverbio.
Murmuran contra mí los que se sientan a la puerta,
y me zahieren en sus canciones los borrachos.
Pero yo oro a ti, oh Señor,
en el tiempo que has fijado:
“Oh Dios, por la abundancia de tu misericordia, respóndeme con tu inagotable socorro.
Sálvame del cieno, que no me hunda, líbrame de los que me odian y de las aguas profundas.
Que no me anegue el torrente,
y no me trague el abismo;
que no se cierre el pozo sobre mí.
Respóndeme, oh Señor, porque benigna es
tu misericordia;
por tu gran compasión, vuélvete hacia mí.”
“No escondas de tu siervo tu rostro;
apresúrate, respóndeme, porque estoy angustiado.
Acércate y redímeme;
a causa de mis enemigos, líbrame.”

THE SECOND READING

This reading, taken from the New Testament, is typically from a letter (epistle) to the early Church, the Acts of the Apostles, or the Revelation to John.

Romans 6:1b-11

Should we continue in sin in order that grace may abound? By no means! How can we who died to sin go on living in it? Do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? Therefore we have been buried with him by baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, so we too might walk in newness of life. For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we will certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his. We know that our old self was crucified with him so that the body of sin might be destroyed, and we might no longer be enslaved to sin. For whoever has died is freed from sin. But if we have died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him. We know that Christ, being raised from the dead, will never die again; death no longer has dominion over him. The death he died, he died to sin, once for all; but the life he lives, he lives to God. So you also must consider yourselves dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Romanos 6:1b-11

¿Vamos a seguir pecando para que Dios se muestre aún más bondadoso? ¡Claro que no! Nosotros ya hemos muerto respecto al pecado; ¿cómo, pues, podremos seguir viviendo en pecado? ¿No saben ustedes que, al quedar unidos a Cristo Jesús en el bautismo, quedamos unidos a su muerte? Pues por el bautismo fuimos sepultados con Cristo, y morimos para ser resucitados y vivir una vida nueva, así como Cristo fue resucitado por el glorioso poder del Padre. Si nos hemos unido a Cristo en una muerte como la suya, también nos uniremos a él en su resurrección. Sabemos que lo que antes éramos fue crucificado con Cristo, para que el poder de nuestra naturaleza pecadora quedara destruido y ya no siguiéramos siendo esclavos del pecado. Porque, cuando uno muere, queda libre del pecado. Si nosotros hemos muerto con Cristo, confiamos en que también viviremos con él. Sabemos que Cristo, habiendo resucitado, no volverá a morir. La muerte ya no tiene poder sobre él. Pues Cristo, al morir, murió de una vez para siempre respecto al pecado; pero al vivir, vive para Dios. Así también, ustedes considérense muertos respecto al pecado, pero vivos para Dios en unión con Cristo Jesús.

Palabra del Señor.

Demos gracias a Dios.

O Jesus, I have promised

Sung by all.

Nyland

The sequence hymn moves us toward the summit of the Liturgy of the Word—the reading of the Holy Gospel. Gospel means “good news”—specifically the “good news of Jesus.”

1. O Je - sus, I have prom - ised to serve thee to the end;
 2. O let me hear thee speak - ing in ac - cents clear and still,
 3. O Je - sus, thou hast prom - ised to all who fol - low thee,

 O speak, and make me lis - ten, thou guard - ian of my soul.
 O give me grace to fol - low, my Mas - ter and my friend.

THE HOLY GOSPEL

This reading is taken from one of the four Gospels (Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John), which depict the life, teachings, death, resurrection, and ascension of our Lord Jesus Christ. We stand for the Gospel reading to show the particular importance placed on Jesus' words and actions.

Matthew 10:24-39

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said to the twelve disciples, "A disciple is not above the teacher, nor a slave above the master; it is enough for the disciple to be like the teacher, and the slave like the master. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebul, how much more will they malign those of his household! So have no fear of them; for nothing is covered up that will not be uncovered, and nothing secret that will not become known. What I say to you in the dark, tell in the light; and what you hear whispered, proclaim from the housetops. Do not fear those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul; rather fear him who can destroy both soul and body in hell. Are not two sparrows sold for a penny? Yet not one of them will fall to the ground apart from your Father. And even the hairs of your head are all counted. So do not be afraid; you are of more value than many sparrows. Everyone therefore who acknowledges me before others, I also will acknowledge before my Father in heaven; but whoever denies me before others, I also will deny before my Father in heaven. Do not think that I have come to bring peace to the earth; I have not come to bring peace, but a sword. For I have come to set a man against his father, and a daughter against her mother, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law; and one's foes will be members of one's own household. Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me; and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me; and whoever does not take up the cross and follow me is not worthy of me. Those who find their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake will find it."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Mateo 10:24-39

Santo Evangelio de nuestro Señor Jesucristo, según Mateo.

¡Gloria a ti, Cristo Señor!

Jesús dijo a los doce apóstoles: «Ningún discípulo es más que su maestro, y ningún criado es más que su amo. El discípulo debe conformarse con llegar a ser como su maestro, y el criado como su amo. Si al jefe de la casa lo llaman Beelzebú, ¿qué dirán de los de su familia? No tengan, pues, miedo de la gente. Porque no hay nada secreto que no llegue a descubrirse, ni nada escondido que no llegue a saberse. Lo que les digo en la oscuridad, díganlo ustedes a la luz del día; y lo que les digo en secreto, grítenlo desde las azoteas de las casas. No tengan miedo de los que matan el cuerpo pero no pueden matar el alma; teman más bien al que puede hacer perecer alma y cuerpo en el infierno. ¿No se venden dos pajarillos por una monedita? Sin embargo, ni uno de ellos cae a tierra sin que el Padre de ustedes lo permita. En cuanto a ustedes mismos, hasta los cabellos de la cabeza él los tiene contados uno por uno. Así que no tengan miedo: ustedes valen más que muchos pajarillos. Si alguien se declara a mi favor delante de los hombres, yo también me declararé a favor de él delante de mi Padre que está en el cielo; pero al que me niegue delante de los hombres, yo también lo negaré delante de mi Padre que está en el cielo. No crean que yo he venido a traer paz al mundo; no he venido a traer paz, sino guerra. He venido a poner al hombre contra su padre, a la hija contra su madre y a la nuera contra su suegra; de modo que los enemigos de cada cual serán sus propios parientes. El que quiere a su padre o a su madre más que a mí, no merece ser mío; el que quiere a su hijo o a su hija más que a mí, no merece ser mío; y el que no toma su cruz y me sigue, no merece ser mío. El que trate de salvar su vida, la perderá, pero el que pierda su vida por causa mía, la salvará.»

El Evangelio del Señor.

Te alabamos, Cristo Señor.

THE SERMON

The sermon directly follows the Gospel because it is to be grounded in the scriptures. It illuminates the scriptural readings and relates them to daily life.

The Very Reverend Randolph Marshall Hollerith

THE NICENE CREED

The word "creed" comes from the Latin "credo" for "I believe." First formulated at the Council of Nicaea in 325 AD and confirmed in 381 AD, the Nicene Creed is said at the Holy Eucharist and reflects what Christians believe regarding the relationship between the Father, Jesus, and the Holy Spirit: The Holy Trinity.

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation,
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Creemos en un solo Dios,
Padre todopoderoso,
Creador de cielo y tierra,
de todo lo visible e invisible.

Creemos en un solo Señor, Jesucristo, Hijo único de Dios,
nacido del Padre antes de todos los siglos:
Dios de Dios, Luz de Luz, Dios verdadero de Dios verdadero,
engendrado, no creado,
de la misma naturaleza que el Padre,
por quien todo fue hecho;
que por nosotros
y por nuestra salvación
bajó del cielo:
por obra del Espíritu Santo se encarnó de María, la Virgen,
y se hizo hombre.
Por nuestra causa fue crucificado
en tiempos de Poncio Pilato:
padeció y fue sepultado.
Resucitó al tercer día, según las Escrituras, subió al cielo
y está sentado a la derecha del Padre.
De nuevo vendrá con gloria para juzgar a vivos y muertos, y su reino no tendrá fin.

Creemos en el Espíritu Santo, Señor y dador de vida,
que procede del Padre y del Hijo, que con el Padre y el Hijo recibe una misma adoración y gloria,
y que habló por los profetas.
Creemos en la Iglesia, que es una, santa, católica y apostólica.
Reconocemos un solo Bautismo para el perdón de los pecados.
Esperamos la resurrección de los muertos
y la vida del mundo futuro. Amén.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

We pray for ourselves and particularly on behalf of others. In our prayers we pray for the for Universal Church, the nation and all who govern, the welfare of the world, the concerns of our community of faith, including those who are in need or suffer, and for the departed. We are reminded in prayer that we are part of a larger fellowship, the Church—the Body of Christ.

After each intercession,

Hear us, O God.
Your mercy is great.

Después de cada intercesión,

Atiéndenos, O Señor.
Tu misericordia es grande.

The presider prays the concluding collect, and the people respond, Amen.

THE CONFESSION & ABSOLUTION

Confessing our sins, receiving forgiveness (absolution), and showing signs of peace to one another prepare us to receive Christ in the Sacrament of Holy Communion.

God of all mercy, we confess that we have sinned against you, opposing your will in our lives. We have denied your goodness in each other, in ourselves, and in the world you have created. We repent of the evil that enslaves us, the evil we have done, and the evil done on our behalf. Forgive, restore, and strengthen us through our Savior Jesus Christ, that we may abide in your love and serve only your will. Amen.

Dios de misericordia, confesamos que hemos pecado contra ti, oponiéndonos a tu voluntad en nuestras vidas. Hemos negado tu bondad el uno del otro, en nosotros mismos, y en el mundo que has creado. Nos arrepentimos del mal que nos esclaviza, el mal que hemos hecho, y el mal que ha sido hecho en nuestro nombre. Perdona, restaura, y fortalécenos a través de nuestro Salvador Jesucristo, que podamos permanecer en tu amor y servir solo a tu voluntad. Amén.

The presider offers absolution and the people respond, Amen.

THE PEACE

The peace of the Lord be always with you.
And also with you.

La paz del Señor sea siempre con ustedes.
Y con tu espíritu.

THE HOLY COMMUNION

THE OFFERTORY

Having listened to the Word of God, affirmed our faith, confessed our sins, received forgiveness and shared in the peace, we are prepared for the drama and miracle of the Holy Communion. At the offertory, we gratefully offer back to God some of what God has given us, symbolically in the bread and wine, and in the money we give.

All are invited to make a gift to support the Cathedral's ministry of sharing God's love with the world by texting the dollar amount you wish to give to (202) 856-9005 or visiting cathedral.org/support.

The altar is prepared for Holy Communion.

ANTHEM AT THE OFFERTORY

All I Have Is Yours

Sung by the cantor.

Rebecca Elliot and Bobby Giles

Creator, giver of all things:

All I have is yours.

Accept my humble offering:

All I have is yours.

When I was chained to greed and pride,

Tight-fisted, destined just to die.

You paid my debt and bought my life—

All I have is yours.

Refrain All I have. All I have. All I have is yours.

This offering is a means of grace,

All I have is yours.

You show me this to grow my faith:

All I have is yours.

The more I give, the less I need,

I learn that you'll provide for me.

'Twas blind to this but now I see—

All I have is yours.

Refrain

Your kingdom come, your will be done:

All I have is yours.

You'll finish all that you've begun:

All I have is yours.

That you would use the gifts I bring

In service of the coming King,

Is reason now to praise and sing:

All I have is yours.

Refrain

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

In the Great Thanksgiving, we do what Jesus himself asked us to do: thank God and recall all that God has done for us in the life, death, and resurrection of Christ. The Great Thanksgiving, or Eucharistic Prayer, is a long prayer with four parts. Each of these four parts corresponds to a different action of Jesus at the Last Supper, where he took, blessed, broke, and gave bread and wine as sacraments of his body and blood. We begin the Great Thanksgiving with the Sursum corda, meaning "Lift up your hearts."

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is truly right, and good and joyful, to give you thanks, all-holy God, source of life and fountain of mercy.

You have filled us and all creation with your blessing and fed us with your constant love; you have redeemed us in Jesus Christ and knit us into one body. Through your Spirit you replenish us and call us to fullness of life.

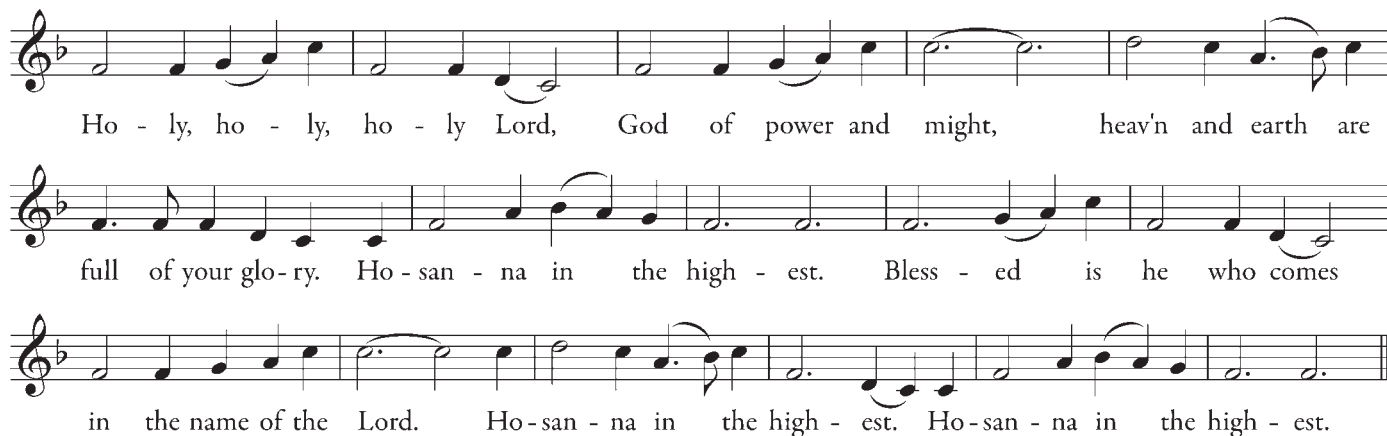

Therefore, joining with Angels and Archangels and with the faithful of every generation, we lift our voices with all creation as we sing:

SANCTUS & BENEDICTUS

Sung by all.

Land of Rest

The Sanctus (Holy, Holy, Holy) is the hymn of praise that never ceases before God and is based on Isaiah 6:3.

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of power and might, heav'n and earth are full of your glo-ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

We recall God's acts of salvation history. The presider says the "Words of Institution" that Jesus said at the Last Supper. At the Memorial Acclamation we remember Christ's death, resurrection, and promise to return at the end of the age. During the prayer, the Holy Spirit is invoked to bless and sanctify the gifts of bread and wine.

Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of the universe and giver of life. You formed us in your own image and called us to dwell in your infinite love.

You gave the world into our care that we might be your faithful stewards and show forth your bountiful grace.

But we failed to honor your image in one another and in ourselves; we would not see your goodness in the world around us; and so we violated your creation, abused one another, and rejected your love. Yet you never ceased to care for us, and prepared the way of salvation for all people.

Through Abraham and Sarah you called us into covenant with you. You delivered us from slavery, sustained us in the wilderness, and raised up prophets to renew your promise of salvation. Then, in the fullness of time, you sent your eternal Word, made mortal flesh in Jesus. Born into the human family, and dwelling among us, he revealed your glory. Giving himself freely to death on the cross, he triumphed over evil, opening the way of freedom and life.

On the night before he died for us, Our Savior Jesus Christ took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his friends, and said: "Take, eat: This is my Body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said: "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

Remembering his death and resurrection, we now present to you from your creation this bread and this wine. By your Holy Spirit may they be for us the Body and Blood of our Savior Jesus Christ. Grant that we who share these gifts may be filled with the Holy Spirit and live as Christ's Body in the world. Bring us into the everlasting heritage of your daughters and sons, that with our patrons, the Apostles Peter and Paul, and all your saints, past, present, and yet to come, we may praise your Name for ever.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to you be honor, glory, and praise, for ever and ever. AMEN.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

We pray together the prayer that Jesus taught his disciples to pray. The link between our daily bread and the spiritual food we receive in the Eucharist is an ancient connection.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Notre Père..., Padre nuestro..., Vater unser...,

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Padre nuestro que estás en el cielo,
santificado sea tu Nombre,
venga tu reino,
hágase tu voluntad,
en la tierra como en el cielo.
Danos hoy nuestro pan de cada día.
Perdona nuestras ofensas,
como también nosotros perdonamos
a los que nos ofenden.
No nos dejes caer en tentación
y líbranos del mal.
Porque tuyo es el reino,
tuyo es el poder,
y tuya es la gloria,
ahora y por siempre. Amén.

THE INVITATION TO HOLY COMMUNION

A spiritual communion is a personal devotional that anyone can pray at any time to express their desire to receive Holy Communion at that moment, but in which circumstances impede them from actually receiving Holy Communion.

The presider invites the following prayer to be said by all.

My Jesus, I believe that you are truly present in the Blessed Sacrament of the Altar. I love you above all things, and long for you in my soul. Since I cannot receive you in the Sacrament of your Body and Blood, come spiritually into my heart. Cleanse and strengthen me with your grace, Lord Jesus, and let me never be separated from you. May I live in you, and you in me, in this life and in the life to come. Amen.

LA INVITACIÓN A LA SANTA EUCARISTÍA

La comunión espiritual es una devoción personal que cualquier persona puede orar en cualquier momento expresando su deseo de recibir la Santa Comunión en ese instante, pero en que la circunstancias le impide de recibir los elementos reales de la Santa Comunión.

La presidenta invita a todos a rezar esta oración.

Jesús mío, creo que estás verdaderamente presente en el Sagrado Sacramento del Altar. Te amo por encima de todas las cosas, y te anhelo en mi alma. Como no te puedo recibir en el Sacramento de tu Cuerpo y Sangre, entra al menos espiritualmente en mi corazón. Límpiame y fortaléceme con tu gracia, Señor Jesús, y nunca permitas que me separe de ti. Que pueda vivir en ti, y tú en mí, en esta vida y en la vida venidera. Amén.

ANTHEM DURING THE COMMUNION

He Won't Leave You

Sung by the cantor.

Richard Smallwood (b. 1948)

You say that life has got you down?
Don't worry.
You say that trouble has got you bound?
Don't worry.
For I know someone who sees and cares,
And he hears the simplest prayer.
There's no problem that he will not help you bear.

You say you think your work is in vain?
Don't worry.
You say your life is filled with rain?
Don't worry.
For behind that cloud, he's waiting there.
And he hears the simplest prayer.
There's no problem that he will not help you bear.

He won't leave you.
Neither will he forsake you.
Just call on the name of the Lord.
Though it may be night,
He'll make things 'come all right.
Just call on the name of the Lord.

He won't leave you.
Just call on the name of the Lord.

THE POSTCOMMUNION PRAYER

Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Eterno Dios, Padre celestial, en tu bondad nos has aceptado como miembros vivos de tu Hijo, nuestro Salvador Jesucristo; nos has nutrido con alimento espiritual en el Sacramento de su Cuerpo y de su Sangre. Envíanos ahora en paz al mundo; revístenos de fuerza y de valor para amarte y servirte con alegría y sencillez de corazón; por Cristo nuestro Señor. Amén.

THE BLESSING

The presider blesses the people, and the people respond, Amen.

POSTLUDE

Passacaglia from Sonata No. 1 for Organ

Charles D. Coleman (1926-1991)

A Prayer for the Power of the Spirit Among the People of God

God of all power and love, we give thanks for your unfailing presence and the hope you provide in times of uncertainty and loss. Send your Holy Spirit to enkindle in us your holy fire. Revive us to live as Christ's body in the world: a people who pray, worship, learn, break bread, share life, heal neighbors, bear good news, seek justice, rest and grow in the Spirit. Wherever and however we gather, unite us in common prayer and send us in common mission, that we and the whole creation might be restored and renewed, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Una Oración por el Poder del Espíritu Entre el Pueblo de Dios

Dios de todo poder y amor, te damos gracias por tu constante presencia y por la esperanza que brindas en tiempos de incertidumbre y de pérdida. Envía tu Espíritu Santo a encender en nosotros tu fuego santo. Revívenos para vivir como cuerpo de Cristo en el mundo: un pueblo que ora, adora, parte el pan, comparte la vida, atiende a sus prójimos, es portador de buenas nuevas, busca la justicia, descansa y crece en el Espíritu. Dondequiera y de cualquier manera que nos reunamos, únenos en oración comunitaria y envíanos en una misión común: que nosotros y toda la creación podamos ser restaurados y renovados, mediante Jesucristo nuestro Señor. Amén.
