PRELUDE

Plein jeu and Récit de Cromorne on "Veni Creator spiritus"

Nicolas de Grigny (1672–1703)

THE ENTRANCE RITE

INTROIT

Goodness of God

Ben Fielding (b. 1988), James Ingram (b. 1974);
arr. CeCe Winans (b. 1964)

I love You, Lord,
For Your mercy never fails me.
All my days, I've been held in Your hands.
From the moment that I wake up,
Until I lay my head,
Oh, I will sing of the goodness of God.

Refrain And all my life, You have been faithful.
And all my life, You have been so, so good.
With every breath that I am able,
Oh, I will sing of the goodness of God.

I love Your voice.
You have led me through the fire.
In the darkest night,
You are close like no other.
I've known You as a Father,
I've known You as a Friend,
And I have lived in the goodness of God.

Your goodness is running after,
It's running after me.
Your goodness is running after,
It's running after me.
With my life laid down,
I'm surrendered now.
I give You everything.
Your goodness is running after,
It's running after me.

Refrain

The people stand as able at the introduction to the hymn.

THE WORD OF GOD

THE OPENING ACCLAMATION

Bishop Mariann Alleluia. Christ is risen.

People The Lord is risen indeed. Alleluia.

Bishop Mariann There is one Body and one Spirit;

People There is one hope in God's call to us;

Bishop Mariann One Lord, one Faith, one Baptism;

People One God and Father of all.

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

Bishop Mariann The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Bishop Mariann Let us pray.

Almighty and most merciful God, grant that by the indwelling of your Holy Spirit we may be enlightened and strengthened for your service; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

People Amen.

The people are seated.

Now a new king arose over Egypt, who did not know Joseph. He said to his people, “Look, the Israelite people are more numerous and more powerful than we. Come, let us deal shrewdly with them, or they will increase and, in the event of war, join our enemies and fight against us and escape from the land.” Therefore they set taskmasters over them to oppress them with forced labor. They built supply cities, Pithom and Rameses, for Pharaoh. But the more they were oppressed, the more they multiplied and spread, so that the Egyptians came to dread the Israelites. The Egyptians became ruthless in imposing tasks on the Israelites, and made their lives bitter with hard service in mortar and bricks and in every kind of field labor. They were ruthless in all the tasks that they imposed on them. The king of Egypt said to the Hebrew midwives, one of whom was named Shiphrah and the other Puah, “When you act as midwives to the Hebrew women and see them on the birthstool, if it is a boy, kill him; but if it is a girl, she shall live.” But the midwives feared God; they did not do as the king of Egypt commanded them, but they let the boys live. So the king of Egypt summoned the midwives and said to them, “Why have you done this, and allowed the boys to live?” The midwives said to Pharaoh, “Because the Hebrew women are not like the Egyptian women; for they are vigorous and give birth before the midwife comes to them.” So God dealt well with the midwives; and the people multiplied and became very strong. And because the midwives feared God, he gave them families. Then Pharaoh commanded all his people, “Every boy that is born to the Hebrews you shall throw into the Nile, but you shall let every girl live.” Now a man from the house of Levi went and married a Levite woman. The woman conceived and bore a son; and when she saw that he was a fine baby, she hid him three months. When she could hide him no longer she got a papyrus basket for him, and plastered it with bitumen and pitch; she put the child in it and placed it among the reeds on the bank of the river. His sister stood at a distance, to see what would happen to him. The daughter of Pharaoh came down to bathe at the river, while her attendants walked beside the river. She saw the basket among the reeds and sent her maid to bring it. When she opened it, she saw the child. He was crying, and she took pity on him. “This must be one of the Hebrews’ children,” she said. Then his sister said to Pharaoh’s daughter, “Shall I go and get you a nurse from the Hebrew women to nurse the child for you?” Pharaoh’s daughter said to her, “Yes.” So the girl went and called the child’s mother. Pharaoh’s daughter said to her, “Take this child and nurse it for me, and I will give you your wages.” So the woman took the child and nursed it. When the child grew up, she brought him to Pharaoh’s daughter, and she took him as her son. She named him Moses, “because,” she said, “I drew him out of the water.”

ANTHEM

With My Whole Heart

Sung by the ensemble.

Nolan Williams, Jr. (b. 1969)

With my whole heart,
 Lord, I will sing to thee.

With my whole heart
 I'll make melodies.

I'll focus on thy glory,
 So I can come before thee
 With my whole heart.

Standing in thy presence
 There's joy unspeakable and free.
 I bow in awe and reverence
 Crying, holy, how I adore thee.

I appeal to you therefore, brothers and sisters, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship. Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your minds, so that you may discern what is the will of God—what is good and acceptable and perfect. For by the grace given to me I say to everyone among you not to think of yourself more highly than you ought to think, but to think with sober judgment, each according to the measure of faith that God has assigned. For as in one body we have many members, and not all the members have the same function, so we, who are many, are one body in Christ, and individually we are members one of another. We have gifts that differ according to the grace given to us: prophecy, in proportion to faith; ministry, in ministering; the teacher, in teaching; the exhorter, in exhortation; the giver, in generosity; the leader, in diligence; the compassionate, in cheerfulness.

Deacon Santo evangelio de nuestro Señor Jesucristo según Mateo.

People Gloria a ti, Cristo Señor.

Cuando Jesús llegó a la región de Cesarea de Filipo, preguntó a sus discípulos: «¿Quién dice la gente que es el Hijo del hombre?» Ellos contestaron: «Algunos dicen que Juan el Bautista; otros dicen que Elías, y otros dicen que Jeremías o algún otro profeta.» «Y ustedes, ¿quién dicen que soy?» les preguntó. Simón Pedro le respondió: «Tú eres el Mesías, el Hijo del Dios viviente.» Entonces Jesús le dijo: «Dichoso tú, Simón, hijo de Jonás, porque esto no lo conociste por medios humanos, sino porque te lo reveló mi Padre que está en el cielo. Y yo te digo que tú eres Pedro, y sobre esta piedra voy a construir mi iglesia; y ni siquiera el poder de la muerte podrá vencerla. Te daré las llaves del reino de los cielos; lo que tú ates aquí en la tierra, también quedará atado en el cielo, y lo que tú desates aquí en la tierra, también quedará desatado en el cielo.» Luego Jesús ordenó a sus discípulos que no dijeran a nadie que él era el Mesías.

Now when Jesus came into the district of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, "Who do people say that the Son of Man is?" And they said, "Some say John the Baptist, but others Elijah, and still others Jeremiah or one of the prophets." He said to them, "But who do you say that I am?" Simon Peter answered, "You are the Messiah, the Son of the living God." And Jesus answered him, "Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah! For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my Father in heaven. And I tell you, you are Peter and on this rock I will build my church, and the gates of Hades will not prevail against it. I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven." Then he sternly ordered the disciples not to tell anyone that he was the Messiah.

THE THANKSGIVING OVER THE WATER

Bishop Mariann The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Bishop Mariann Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Bishop Mariann We thank you, Almighty God, for the gift of water. Over it the Holy Spirit moved in the beginning of creation. Through it you led the children of Israel out of their bondage in Egypt into the land of promise. In it your Son Jesus received the baptism of John and was anointed by the Holy Spirit as the Messiah, the Christ, to lead us, through his death and resurrection, from the bondage of sin into everlasting life.

We thank you, Father, for the water of Baptism. In it we are buried with Christ in his death. By it we share in his resurrection. Through it we are reborn by the Holy Spirit. Therefore in joyful obedience to your Son, we bring into his fellowship those who come to him in faith, baptizing them in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

At the following words, Bishop Mariann touches the water.

Bishop Mariann Now sanctify this water, we pray you, by the power of your Holy Spirit, that those who here are cleansed from sin and born again may continue for ever in the risen life of Jesus Christ our Savior.

To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit, be all honor and glory, now and for ever.

People Amen.

THE HOLY BAPTISM

Each candidate is presented to Bishop Mariann.

Bishop Mariann I baptize you in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.
People Amen.

Bishop Mariann You are sealed by the Holy Spirit in Baptism and marked as Christ's own forever.
People Amen.

Deacon Receive the light of Christ and carry it into the world.
People Amen.

Bishop Mariann Let us pray.

Heavenly Father, we thank you that by water and the Holy Spirit you have bestowed upon these your servants the forgiveness of sin, and have raised them to the new life of grace. Sustain them, O Lord, in your Holy Spirit. Give them an inquiring and discerning heart, the courage to will and to persevere, a spirit to know and to love you, and the gift of joy and wonder in all your works.

People Amen.

Bishop Mariann Let us welcome the newly baptized.

Bishop & People We receive you into the household of God. Confess the faith of Christ crucified, proclaim his resurrection, and share with us in his eternal priesthood.

The newly baptized return to their seats.

Bishop Mariann Let us now pray for these persons who have renewed their commitment to Christ.

Silence is kept.

Bishop Mariann Almighty God, we thank you that by the death and resurrection of your Son Jesus Christ you have overcome sin and brought us to yourself, and that by the sealing of your Holy Spirit you have bound us to your service. Renew in these your servants the covenant you made with them at their Baptism. Send them forth in the power of that Spirit to perform the service you set before them; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

People Amen.

The candidates for confirmation, reception, and reaffirmation and their presenters come forward at the direction of the vergers and ushers.

I've Decided to Make Jesus My Choice

Sung by the ensemble.

Harris Johnson (1937–2023)

Some folks would rather have houses and lands.
Some folks choose silver and gold
These things they treasure and forget about their souls.
I've decided to make Jesus my choice.

Refrain

The road is rough and the going gets tough,
And the hills are hard to climb.
I've started out a long time ago
There is no doubt in my mind,
I've decided to make Jesus my choice.

These clothes may be ragged that I'm wearing
Heavy is the load that I'm bearing
These old burdens that I'm carrying
I've decided to make Jesus my choice.

Refrain
